

"We need to take retirement ages up. I want to increase vesting periods." (California governor's debate, Sept. 28, 2010)

"New people are going to have to come in under a different deal...a 401k-style program like everyone in the private sector." (California governor's debate, Sept. 28, 2010)

"The era of a defined-benefit program is over!"

(Interview with Orange County Register Editorial Board, March 23, 2010)

Meg Whitman Is Taking Aim at Our Retirement

Jerry Brown Will Create Jobs & Protect Retirement

- As governor created 1.9 million new jobs
- Has a plan to increase new jobs in technology and green economy by cutting red tape and putting public sector to work
- Pledged to protect defined benefit pensions and to oppose privatizing public workers' retirement

"Jerry Brown has a solid record of putting people back to work. That's what it comes down to."

— Letty Alvarez
Ventura County Public Health
Community services coordinator
