

City of Los Angeles and Schools Election Town Halls

Is Los Angeles headed in the right direction?

After several years of furloughs and lay-offs our schools and public services have been stretched thin but with the passage of Prop. 30 and an opportunity to elect new committed leaders we can turn things around.

What's at stake?

- A conservative group is prepared to spend millions to elect another "Riordan" type Mayor.
- Some "friends" of labor have been friendly with big business and lobbyists instead of being concerned about the conditions of city neighborhoods.
- Some elected officials have been focusing on their next "job" rather than focusing on the community they were elected to serve.

What type of Los Angeles do you want?

It's time to make working families and quality public services for all LA neighborhoods a priority and that begins by attending the candidate town hall!

Attend these important town halls and make your voice heard. For more information and to RSVP to Government Relations, call (213) 368-8602.

There are so many candidates to interview; it will take three nights to meet everyone:
