

Hey Miguel, A Deal's a Deal!

City Administrative Officer Miguel Santana is the reason we don't have an approved contract.

What's Going On?

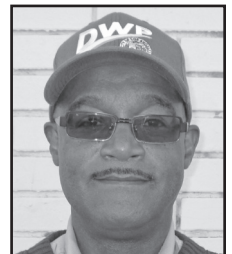

After two years of negotiations, we reached and ratified a tentative agreement with management. But the CAO asked the city's Executive Employee Relations Committee to hold it up. He wants to wring more concessions out of us.

Our Position

We are committed to containing costs and are open to new ideas about how to do it. But we negotiated a contract, and the city should honor it. After all, a deal's a deal.

"DWP keeps water flowing to all Angelenos. We have earned and deserve an approved contract."

— Greg Langhorn
DWP Security Officer
