| Francisca Alvarenga | 777 | I'm Francisca Alvarenga and I've worked for Los Angeles County for 18 years, 13 of which have been in the Appeals and State Hearing Section. As a Supervising Appeals Hearing Specialist, I've had the opportunity to communicate with the majority of the classifications under 777, 711 and 723 bargaining units and hear their concerns. As a result I've developed an understanding of our members needs and will stand and fight for all of us to receive the raises, health care benefits and better working conditions that we deserve. During these harsh political times it's important that we all stand united and strong. Give me your vote so I can represent us all. Thank you. |
| Pitwati Boentaran   | 777 | I was in the bargaining team in 2010. I will do my best to fight for what you want. I believe in case equity, fairness, and doing our job the right way.  |
| Roberto Fonseca     | 777 | As an Adult Protective Social Services Supervisor, the fundamental reason I want to join the Bargaining Unit is because we need to have a strong and robust group of negotiators who will look after the best interest of those affected by the current contract. Although I have not been part of this particular bargaining unit before, I have been part of other associations that deals with similar issues and I offer my knowledge and skills to promote and maximize our success in negotiating with the Los Angeles County (BOS).  |
| Paula Gamboa        | 777 | I'm proud to serve and represent my fellow SCSWS in our continued struggle for dignity and respect in the workplace as supervisors we must band together and continue providing our staff with advocacy and fairness and the needed tools and resources to do this important job well. As the current 777 chair of your bargaining team I am committed to winning and not settling for mediocrity.  |

| LaLisa Morgan   | 777 | I have served as a Union Steward and Bargaining Team member (2014). I believe in transparency and partnering with our community of experts to get the job done. I hope to continue to serve my fellow social workers as a member of the SCSW bargaining team. As a CSW, I supported bargaining efforts and we received raises and a good contract. SCSWs are liaisons and guardians of workforce and we need a strong team. Please Vote for LaLisa Morgan on your Bargaining Team!   |
| Robinn Mosley   | 777 | I'm Robinn Mosley, GAIN Services Supervisor, A Steward, A Fierce Bargaining Member representing All members within 777. I spearheaded unyielding not to compromise with success new language in DPSS and APS MOU. Attended every meeting and will continue to do so. In 2015 we won double-digit salary increases, extra vacation days for senior employees, night and evening shift bonus increases, increases to cover rising medical premiums, and Cesar Chavez Day, the first new County holiday since MLK. I am committed to do more for all members in 2018. STAY WOKE, it's our Time to STAND UNITED AGAIN. |
| Jorge Ortiz Jr. | 777 | I have been a member of SEIU since 1990. I am also a member of the last two negotiations for BU 777. I dedicated my time and energy to advocate for all members of SEIU. I also represent BU 777 at SEIU Regional Advisory council and I am a member of the Regional Appeals Committee.  |
| Dina Petruzzi   | 777 | I have been an employee for 20 years starting as a CSW Trainee. I have ER and CS experience and have been a union steward approx. 18-19 years. I have prior bargaining experience. I have participated in multiple meet and confer meetings, policy meetings, grievance meeting at all levels, previously sat on Caseload Accountability Panel, Lead Steward at Belvedere office and Regions LMC chair.  |

ADDITIONALLY, I WORKED IN CSEC, A PROGRAM THAT IS IN DIRE NEED OF REPRESENTATION IN OUR NEXT CONTRACT. I HUMBLY ASK FOR YOUR VOTE SO THAT I ALONG WITH OTHER CSW'S AND SCSW'S CAN CONTINUE TO WORK TOWARD SECURING A FAIR CONTRACT.  |
| Lina Reyes      | 777 | My name is Lina Reyes. I am a Supervising Appeals Hearing Specialist. As you know we are under serious attack during this political year. The need to have someone represent you, who will not be intimidated or backdown from fighting, for a contract that is fair and just is more important than ever. I know we are facing an uphill battle this contract year. In my position, I have had the chance to talk to many of you in various sections and departments, and I have heard many of your concerns as it relates to your work and working conditions. As a result, I have felt the need to make a positive difference and want to stand up and fight for all of us to receive the fair pay, good working conditions, and health care benefits that we more than deserve. Please vote for me so that I can share your concerns and be a voice on the bargaining team for all of us. Thank you. |
| Sharonda Wade   | 777 | I have served as the Vice President of the Executive Board for the past year. I have been a main advocate for child safety and members rights. I have participated in the Road Map to Child Safety and my heart is dedicated to the Children and Families that DCFS serves as well as our members.   |
| Marc Williams   | 777 | I have worked with the Department for 10 years in the capacity of CSU and SCSW. As a CSW I have worked throughout the Department in various positive/field including D-Role, FOR/FR and/or CS Mart, ER and currently ERCP as an SCSW. My interest has always individual working in the business and public sector negotiating and advocating for workers' rights. My diplomacy and persistent deal has always been useful to benefit others when needed.   |
