

“Right to Work” – Don’t Be Fooled

The goons pushing “Right to Work” are wolves in sheep’s clothing.

Here’s how to hold down the line if they approach us at this worksite:

1 - Don’t wait to confront them. The sooner we let them know we’re not buying what they’re selling, the sooner they’ll hit the road for good.

2 - Take group action. Go with your co-workers. There is safety in numbers - and more power, too.

3 - Face them directly. Let them know we’re not intimidated by confronting them face-to-face.

4 - Tell them to leave - NOW.

They’re trying to deceive us into working for less and without any protections. Fight back and hold the line!
