

OUR BENEFITS AND WORKPLACE PROTECTIONS ARE UNDER ATTACK

DO NOT SIGN YOUR RIGHTS AWAY

The United States Supreme Court has issued a decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME, and ushered in so-called “Right to Work” nationwide. We know that this decision is just the latest attempt by the greedy backers of “Right to Work” to take away everything we’ve fought for and won for our families, but no court case will hold us back.

“Don’t let ‘Right to Work’ scammers try to divide and conquer us – our families can’t afford it. Don’t sign away everything we’ve won.”

Cammie Sohm
County of Riverside

Despite the court decision, unions are still here, and we’re still union strong. So-called “Right to Work” CAN mean losing our union, but only if we sign our rights away.

“We’ve seen anti-worker scams like this for years, and we’re not falling for it. Stay united and stay SEIU strong!”

Lillian Cabral
County of Los Angeles

In the coming weeks, you might see “Right to Work” goons popping up at your worksites or visiting you at your homes. You may be approached by someone from an “association,” by the Freedom Foundation, or by an anti-union coworker, but don’t be fooled.

“The greedy rich behind ‘Right to Work’ will try every trick in the book. I won’t be tricked into signing away my rights and giving up my union.”

Grace Sepulveda
County of Ventura

Their goal is simple: to trick union members into signing away our rights and leaving us unprotected and without union representation.

These “Right to Work” goons want nothing more than to gut our union and leave us without the strength and resources to protect ourselves from their anti-worker agenda. Don’t fall for it!
